

CONFIDENTIAL

9 December 1976

NOTE FOR: DCI

SUBJECT: Breakfast/Briefing for Senator Roman Hruska

1. Following up on your conversation with Senator Hruska, I called and invited him to breakfast with you on Monday, 13 December, at 8:00. He realizes that you have other commitments after breakfast.

2. He would like a general overview of the Agency and the parameters under which it operates. I have arranged with Paul Walsh, who does some of the Brookings briefings, to handle the basic briefing after breakfast and have also asked Tony Lapham to sit in in view of the Senator's involvement in the Judiciary Committee's considerations of revisions of the U.S. Code pertaining to the protection of classified information. If it is agreeable with you, I suggest that both of these men also attend the breakfast. While Senator Hruska's interest is directed principally at the Agency, you might want to have  present at the breakfast to give the Senator a little Community flavor.
